COUNTY OF CHATHAM

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH AND NATIONAL UNITY DAY 2002

WHEREAS, domestic violence is a pattern of coercion and control in an intimate relationship where one person uses violence to gain power and control over their partner; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence includes not only physical abuse, but also mental abuse, emotional abuse, financial abuse, isolation, and sexual violence; and

WHEREAS, nearly 25 percent of American women report being raped and/or physically assaulted by a current or former spouse, partner, or date at some time in their lifetime, according to the National Violence Against Women Survey; and

WHEREAS, thirty percent of Americans say they know a woman who has been physically abused by her husband or boyfriend in the past year; and

WHEREAS, women of all races and socioeconomic backgrounds are vulnerable to violence by an intimate partner; and

WHEREAS, in North Carolina, domestic violence programs provide services to over 40,000 victims each year, according to the Council for Women; and

WHEREAS, more than three women are murdered by their husbands or boyfriends every day; and

WHEREAS, in 2001 North Carolina ranked 6th in the nation in the number of women murdered by men, and so far this year more than 30 women, men, and children have been murdered as a result of domestic violence this year; and

WHEREAS, since 1996, five Chatham County residents have been murdered by their husbands or boyfriends.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Chatham County Board of Commissioners hereby proclaims October 2002 as “Domestic Violence Awareness Month”. We further urge our citizens to become aware of this destructive force in our society and to become part of the efforts to stop violence in families.
